DISCUSSION ON OPENING STREET

WEST GLENDALE PROTECTIVE LEAGUE HOLD MEETING AT HIGH SCHOOL

ADVANCE ARGUMENT

OPPOSITION IS OFFERED TO COMMERCIAL HIGHWAY DURING SESSION

Under the auspices of the West Glendale Protective league, nearly 100 persons, practically all of whom reside in the proposed assessment district, met at the Glendale union high school last night for the purpose of further discussion of the contemplated opening of Commercial street.

Isabel Barrett, chairman of the league, presided. The other officers are: J. MacMillan, vice chairman; W. W. Stevenson, treasurer; A. H. Lapham, secretary.

T. W. Watson, city manager, on invitation, addressed the meeting and advanced fourteen points why the opening of Commercial street would, in his opinion, prove advantageous to Glendale generally.

With the aid of a large map, City Manager Watson displayed the various street improvements under way or proposed and, upon conclusion of his address, answered a number of questions put by various persons in the gathering.

No Definite Action Taken

The league was in session for about two hours and adjourned to meet the first Tuesday night in January. No definite action, beyond instructing committees to secure further details regarding the proposed improvement, was taken last night.

It was stated by City Manager Watson that about six weeks will be required by the board of trustees to complete the present legal steps toward the proposed street opening. In the meantime, judging from expressions by individual members of the league last night, the organization will formulate a plan of combatting the contemplated improvement.

A number of new members were taken into the league last night and, it was stated, the membership has about doubled since the last session.

In answer to questions, City Manager Watson stated that, in his opinion, the board of city trustees has acquired jurisdiction over the proposed improvement, despite the fact an error had been discovered in one of the ordinances relative to the work. The error does not, he said, again permit a legal protest against the work to be filed with the trustees. The legal time of protest, he said, had expired some time ago.

It was explained that the legal protest of the property owners had been overruled by the trustees as lacking sufficient frontage. It has since developed, it was explained,

GIVEN SHOWER

MISS ESTHER SCHREMP GUEST OF HONOR AT AFTERNOON IN SEYMOUR SMITH HOME

Mrs. Seymour Smith, 416 West Wilson avenue, entertained last Saturday afternoon with a delightful kitchen shower in honor of Miss Esther Schremp, who is to be married December 27 to Lloyd Bradley of Denver. The home of Mrs. Smith was beautifully decorated, appropriate to the holiday season, with red and green flowers and candles.

During the afternoon the guests hemmed tea towels and made very lively conversation, as the news of the approaching wedding was a surprise to many of them. When completed, the towels were presented to the bride-elect. She was also showered with a wonderful array of useful gifts, these being presented by dainty little Mary Elizabeth Evans of Utica, New York.

List of Those Present

At 5 p. m. delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The guests were Marjorie Imler, Waunita Emery, Marcella Miller, Harriett Williams, Mary Logan, Catherine Phillips of Hollywood, Mary and Helen Hitchcock of Los Angeles, Mrs. Jones of Burbank, Miss Kathleen Dodge of San Diego, who is also a bride-elect, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mrs. Evans and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Utica, New York, Mrs. J. J. Schremp, Mrs. Smith MacMullin, Mrs. J. G. Huntley and daughter Virginia, and Mrs. J. Herbert Smith.

Degree of Rebecca of Carnation Lodge Hostess to Big Party of Guests

The Degree of Rebekah of Carnation Lodge were hostesses last evening to a large party of guests whom they entertained in the I. O. O. F. hall on East Broadway.

Guests of honor included Miss Stella Merrick, president of the State Rebekah Assembly of California, Mrs. Marie Steinman, Grand Inside Guardian of the State Rebekah Assembly of California, Mrs. Marie Whitmore, Grand Chaplain of the Assembly, Mrs. May Grant, its Grand Warden, and Mr. Merrick, Patriarch Militant of the State of California.

Other honor guests were Mrs. Viola Grant, district deputy president of this district, and a large number of members of Eastgate Lodge, Los Angeles, Edelweis Lodge, Los Angeles, and the Noble Grand and Vice-Noble Grand of Van Nuys.

The hall was festively arrayed in Christmas decorations of red and green streamers, holly branches and pepper boughs, and the dining room was gay with pink flowers and green ferns—pink and green being the Rebekah degree colors.

Noble Grand Mrs. C. R. Lund presided over the meeting. Short talks were made by all the officers present. The principal address was made by the president of the State Assembly, who emphasized the meaning of the order's principles of friendship, love and truth, and laid great stress on the personal obligations of each member, especially in the matter of regular attendance at meetings.

Light refreshments and a social good time followed the program.

LONG SERVICE

FORTY-TWO YEARS' WORK IN JAPAN BY MISS SPENCE, WHO VISITS HERE

Miss M. A. Spence, a retired missionary, whose work in Japan has extended over a period of forty-two years, is the house guest of Rev. and Mrs. Julius Soper, 1305 North Maryland avenue, with whom she expects to reside until spring.

Miss Spencer was sent to Tokio by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church in 1878. There she did evangelical work among the women and children and won for herself a high place in the hearts of all. She left the field temporarily in 1907, when she made a trip around the world in company with Rev. and Mrs. Soper, who had also been doing missionary work in Japan.

To Spend Winter in Glendale

Miss Spencer later returned to her work, but in the spring of this year she was retired and returned to the United States, first visiting relatives at her home in Philadelphia and a few weeks ago coming to spend the winter with her old friends in Glendale.

So greatly has she been missed in Tokio that the Japanese have won her consent to return to them. This time she will not be sent by the Missionary society, but her expenses will be paid entirely by her followers in Japan, who have promised her a home and every inducement if she will come back and continue her work among them.

GETS SURPRISE

GEORGE BREWSTER, DAY DESK SERGEANT, IS VISITED BY ONE OF HIS PUPILS

George Brewster, day desk sergeant, residing at 327 Sinclair avenue, was happily surprised Monday night when he was visited by a former pupil, Fred McClellan, of New York, whom he had not seen for ten years.

Mr. Brewster was at one time head of a school for delinquent children and children of delinquent parents in New York. To each of the 240 scholars he was known as "Pop Brewster," but until Sunday night it had been thirty years since the term of endearment had been applied to him.

He was called to the telephone early in the evening for a long distance message. The first words he heard were "Hello, Pop Brewster." The owner of the voice was persuaded to come out from Pasadena and spend the evening talking over old times. From Mr. McClellan, Mr. Brewster learned the whereabouts of many of his old pupils as well as news of his friends and relatives in the east.

OPPORTUNITY IN GLENDALE

NUMBER OF LOCAL BUSINESS FIRMS ARE ANXIOUS TO ENLARGE QUARTERS

PROPOSE BUILDINGS

BONUS BEING OFFERED FOR STORE ROOMS; BLOCKS TO BE ERECTED, REPORT

Progressive business men do not wait for Opportunity to knock at their door—they go forth valiantly to track her to her lair and persuade her to yield her best to them.

One business concern on South Brand boulevard was offered a bonus of $1000 one day this week for its lease, which has still two years to run, and an advance of $50 a month on the present rent.

The proprietor of a small place on South Brand boulevard, between Broadway and Harvard, was offered $150 a month for it.

The Burton & Chandler Realty company's plans for a building on their recently-purchased property on the northeast corner of Brand boulevard and Harvard street are still in an embryonic state, but it is certain that this firm will erect there a substantial business block; its need is not a supposition or a possible contingency, but an assured fact, evidence for which is seen in the many applications received by Burton & Chandler as soon as it was even rumored they might build. Already there have been enough of such ap-

PLAN TABLEAUX

BEAUTIFUL SERIES WILL BE GIVEN THURSDAY NIGHT AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Four beautifully arranged tableaux will feature the Christmas exercises which are to be given tomorrow evening at the Presbyterian church. The first represents the Annunciation to the Virgin Mary, during which the story of how the angel appeared before Mary had announced to her that she would be the mother of Jesus, will be read. The part of Mary is taken by Miss Margaret Morgan.

The second tableau, entitled "The Shepherds," represents the scene where the shepherds are informed of the Christ child's birth, as they lie on the barren hillsides near Bethlehem. The shepherds are boys from Gutherie Boyd's and Fred Hoffman's classes.

The third tableau pictures the wise men kneeling before the manger and presenting their gifts to the newborn King. The parts of Mary and Joseph are taken by Miss Morgan and J. B. McClellan. The choir will sing "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem" through this scene.

Program Varied and Excellent

The final tableau is entitled "Sacrifice" and is being arranged by Mr. Hoffman. Two Boy Scouts, two Red Cross girls and two Armenian children have the leading roles. This final scene is considered especially appropriate as following it the members of the church and Sunday school will present their "White Gifts for the King," funds which will be given for Assyrian and Armenian relief.

The program in the order it will be presented follows:

Orchestra music led by Mr. McDaniels; Christmas carols on the pipe organ; scripture verses, Service, Self and Substance, by two boys' classes; prayer, Supt. H. L. Finlay; first tableau, song, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" by concealed choir of 20 voices led by Miss Fannie M. Retts; exercises by the primary; recitation by Miss Mabel Harrison; second tableau; duet by William Farner and Joe Rhodes; exercise by the girls of Miss Minnie St. Clair's class; recitation by Master Hoyt; Snowflakes song by girls of Miss Bessie Field's class; third tableau; fourth tableau, and sermonette, Life's Service, by the Rev. W. E. Edmonds.

INDIANA RESIDENT HERE

Miss Ella Leaning of La Porte, Ind., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman, 614 South Central avenue. She expects to spend the holiday season here, returning to her home after New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Leaning of La Porte, Ind., will also be dinner guests Christmas day at the Bosserman home. They arrived recently in California to spend the winter and are residing at apartments near the West Lake district, Los Angeles.

Pacific Electric Heads and Special Committee Confer on Improvements

Conference between a committee representing the Brand Boulevard Improvement association and officials of the Pacific Electric Railway company was held in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon on the subject of improvement of the company's tracks and right-of-way in Glendale.

For more than two hours there was a general discussion, with the result that it was announced by Vice-President Titcomb of the railway that he would in about ten days write a letter to the committee, which is headed by Mattison B. Jones, stating just how far the company could go in meeting the requests.

"When the letter is received," said Chairman Jones to The Evening News today, "I shall, as chairman of the Brand Boulevard Improvement association, call the committee together and we will then call a general meeting of the association and submit Vice-President Titcomb's communication. I anticipate that the general meeting will be held about January 10."

Improvement of the tracks and right-of-ways, as outlined by the committee, would cost the company a quarter of a million dollars, it was declared by the oficials, and could not be contemplated at this time.

Besides Vice-President Titcomb, Frank Karr, chief counsel for the company, and Chief Engineer Johnson were present. The local committee was headed by Mattison B. Jones. The members of the committee are: A. W. Beach, Clinton L. Booth, Kemper B. Campbell, Hal Davenport, Charles B. Guthrie, D. Ripley Jackson, O. A. Lane, John A. Logan, A. G. Spohr and J. W. Usilton. W. E. Evans, city attorney, and T. W. Watson, city manager, act with the committee as representatives at large.

GIRLS TO AID

PRETTY GIRLS AND GARMENTS OF SERVICE PREPARED FOR ORPHANED CHILDREN

Gifts of prettily dressed dolls and warm, serviceable garments for the orphan children of the David and Margaret Home at La Verne have been completed by members of the Girl Scouts' troop No. 1 and will be sent to the Home today.

The troop held its regular weekly meeting at the First Methodist church and finished the gifts yesterday afternoon. Miss Gladys Sharpe, the Scout leader, presided.

Troop No. 1 is composed of eleven girls who last week passed the tenderfoot tests and formed themselves into the first Girl Scout troop in Glendale. The investiture ceremony took place at the home of Miss Lina Borthick, 811 South Maryland avenue, following which a luncheon was served and the afternoon spent in getting ready the gifts for the Home.

To Have Two Patrols

The troop will have two patrols, the Bluebird and the Woodthrush, and when full will number thirty-two. The training will be primarily for good citizenship and behavior, to develop a high sense of honor and responsibility.

The girls have already received their badges and pins and their work this week in preparing a Christmas surprise for the orphan home is proof that they are ready for serious work.

STREET LIGHTS

SIX FROM GRAND VIEW TO VINE AVENUE LIGHTED FOR FIRST TIME

Last evening, for the first time in the history of that section, street lights shone forth cheerily on Sixth street all the way from Grand View avenue to Vine avenue.

The fixtures were put up only yesterday, and it would seem from that bare fact that the work of getting street lights for that part of the city were a simple, speedy matter. But things are not what they seem, as the people of that section know well; for they have worked and clamored continuously for two years to get those lights. They finally got them, and feel a just satisfaction in their success.

The lighting system will be extended later throughout this entire section.

MESSENGER BOY FOR BANK ROBBED OF $6,500 IN DOWNTOWN SECTION OF LOS ANGELES NEAR NOON TODAY

Daring Holdup Takes Place Near Alley When Robber, Armed, Takes Money and Escapes

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—Paul Sauer, 17-year-old messenger for the Security Trust & Savings Bank, was robbed of $6,500 in the downtown district here at about 11 o'clock this morning by a lone bandit armed with a revolver.

The daring holdup took place in an alley near Spring and Fifth streets. Sauer had just left the Farmers & Merchants Bank and carried the money in a satchel.

Confronting young Sauer and thrusting a revolver close to his abdomen the highwayman snatched the satchel. He dashed out of the alley and was swallowed up in a throng of Christmas shoppers and others in Spring street.

Sauer described the bandit as being 6 feet 2 inches tall, heavy set and poorly dressed. He wore large tortoise shell spectacles, a rain coat and a cheap cap pulled way down over his eyes.

A score or more of detectives armed with sawed off shot guns were sent out at once in search of the robber.

CITY WANTS NO CHARTER

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—After a corporate existence of 126 years, the city of Jefferstown, in Jefferstown county, Kentucky, has petitioned the courts to revoke its charter, which was obtained in 1794, and asked that its government revert to county control. A majority of the voters signed the paper, declaring that alleged high municipal taxes led them to take the step. About 700 persons, including Henry Watterson, famous journalist, live in the city.

Letters of guardianship were issued to the girl's father in the probate court.

THEATRE ORGAN BEING ERECTED

ONE OF LARGEST IN WEST IS NOW BEING INSTALLED IN GLENDALE SHOWHOUSE

ORGANIST IS NOTED

ARTIST WHO APPEARED AT NOTED HOUSES TO PLAY; RECITALS ON SUNDAYS

Glendale Theatre's great Estey organ arrived in this city via the Salt Lake railway from Battleboro, Vt., on Monday morning.

In it's "knocked down" state, this conglomerate collection of pipes, wires, shutters and what-not looked to the uninitiated like anything but what it really is—one of the greatest orchestral pipe organs in the west, an instrument of the same type as the organ in the Capital Theatre in New York City, the largest theatre in the world. The parts came packed in 154 immense cases, weighing from 250 to 1100 pounds each. Scarcely had the huge furniture car in which the organ travelled to Glendale come to a stop on the siding in the railway yard, when a gang of men began unloading and transferring crates, boxes and machinery to the waiting trucks.

Arrived at the theatre, the organ in its crates and cases was received by a crew of expert erectors, who directed the distribution of the thousands of parts as fast as they were uncrated.

Yesterday the actual work of installation began in earnest, and by omitting the matinees all this week and next, it is hoped that the work of installing the instrument may be completed about January 4. Then the formal dedication of the organ will be held.

Three-Manuel Instrument

The Glendale Theatre organ is a three-manual instrument, with echo chambers on the rear wall of the auditorium. The main organ chambers are in the proscenium grill at either side of the stage. It took more than nine months to build this wonderful organ, which is not surpassed by any theatre organ in the United States; and, indeed, there are few that even equal it.

"It is one thing to have a great organ, but quite another to have the

NEW OFFICER

POLICEMAN CARL BLIX, JR., IS BELOW MINIMUM WEIGHT BUT VOICE IS STRONG

A new addition to the Glendale police force was made last Sunday night, although the new officer is considered too small by most of the force to qualify for the job.

One who takes exception to this stand is Police Officer Carl Blix, 203 East Elk avenue, father of the three and one-half-pound boy who was born at the Glendale sanitarium at 11:45 p. m. Sunday. Despite his size hospital authorities say that the child is perfect and both he and his mother are getting along unusually well.

Mrs. Blix was formerly Miss Edna B. Henning of this city. Little Carl Blix, Jr., as he is being called until the family all agree on another name, is not only the first born of the Blix family, but is also the first grandchild. Mrs. Anna Ferguson, 439 West Hawthorne, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Henning, 203 East Elk avenue, are the proud grandparents. George Blix, Glendale fireman, is now an uncle.

LEAP YEAR

EACH GIRL INVITES BOY TO ACCOMPANY HER TO HOME OF SOCIAL GATHERING

The S. O. S. class of the Central Christian church held a leap year party last evening at the home of Rose Nelson, 213 West Elk avenue. Each girl invited a boy to accompany her to the party.

Upon entering the home of Miss Nelson it was necessary to give the pass word to gain admission. Holly, ferns and misteltoe decorated the various rooms. The program for the evening, which was written on dance programs, consisted of games.

A Christmas tree was also one of the features of the evening, each guest receiving a present. Favors were distributed and ice-cream and cake served. This happy party of twenty-eight young folks adjourned at midnight.

BURGLAR SWALLOWS LOOT.

BERLIN.—Arrested here, Will Pansin, a burglar who formerly drove the Berlin police chief's motor car, was found to have swallowed the proceeds of his latest robbery.

It was noticed after his arrest that he walked with difficulty and that his stomach appeared abnormally large.

The prison doctor advised him to undergo an operation, but Pansin refused, saying that he would rather be operated on at his own expense. Next day he was found in his cell with a deep knife wound in his side.

An X-ray examination, says the Berlin Post, revealed "a mountain of foreign bodies" in Pansin's stomach, including silver spoons, small forks, a number of screws, and a silver nail file.

AWAY FROM EXCESSIVE TAXES.

LONDON.—A party of forty enthusiastic adventurers, headed by F. F. Rhodes Disher, fellow of the Royal Geographical society, have decided to spend the rest of their lives on a tropical island away from excessive taxation. They will leave for the South Seas next month in a schooner yacht, the Medora.

"More than 1000 people have asked to come with us," said Mr. Disher. "Our first party includes doctors, solicitors, planters, ex-officers, surveyors, engineers, a wireless operator and a clergyman. Several of the party are taking their wives and families with them.

"Until we have secured an island or a portion of one and fitted up temporarily we shall live in our vessel. One strict rule is that the colony shall have no politics," Mr. Disher added.

THICK ANKLE TO BE FASHION

SLOW CLOCK COSTS ROAD $500

MOBILE, Ala.—Mrs. Ellen Carey of Decatur, Ala., has been awarded $500 damages by the supreme court against the Louisville & Nashville railroad because a clock in the station at Decatur was slow. The court ruled that the railroad company was responsible for errors made by any clock or timepiece which it exhibited to public gaze. The body of a son of the woman was on a train going to Hartselle, Ala. The clock in the depot showed 6:23 and the train left at 6:30. When the woman went to take the train by the depot time it was gone with the body. She sued for $3000.

Declaring that equal suffrage placed women on a par with men, a Chicago judge fined two women for contempt of court when they refused to remove their hats at his request.

RETURN HOME

MISS MARY ST. CLAIR AND HER SISTER, MRS. NEWELL ROOT, ARE BACK AGAIN

Miss Mary St. Clair, 1250 South Maryland avenue, and her sister, Mrs. Newell Root, 210 West Vernon, Los Angeles, returned to their homes last week after visiting friends in Oklahoma City.

Miss St. Clair, who went to Oklahoma for her health, has been absent from Glendale for six months. Mrs. Root, however, left only a month ago to join her sister and return with her. They report having a pleasant visit and return trip.

Musical Bargains

"Steinway" has long been a name to conjure with in the world of good pianos—and the Glendale Phonograph & Piano company, 109 North Brand boulevard, is offering a fine chance for Santa to make someone's heart glad this Christmas with the gift of a Steinway piano in a mahogany case at a substantial reduction from the regular price.

This piano is offered at $275 less than the regular price on this standard make, because it has been used; but it is in excellent condition—and it is said by those who know that the tone of a used piano is superior to that of a brand new one.

This is only one of the several bargains in pianos of standard make that are offered in the advertisements the Glendale Phonograph & Piano company are running in the classified columns of The Evening News.

Greensburg, Indiana, is known as "The Lone Tree City," because of a tree growing on the courthouse tower in that city.

BUSINESS BLOCKS WILL BE ERECTED IN GLENDALE TO HOUSE FIRMS

plications to fill a modern six-story building.

The Monarch Auto Supply Co., 121 South Brand boulevard, is even now making plans to put up a large business block on their property at the southeast corner of Brand boulevard and Harvard street. This property has a frontage of 107 feet on Brand boulevard and 115 feet on Harvard. The plans for the building to be erected on this property are tentative—owing to the fact that many applications for space for diverse lines of business have been received by the Monarch Auto Supply company. It is practically certain, however, that a large building will be begun on their property in the early spring.

Another advance step in Glendale's progress will be the establishment here of a first-class hotel—and this opportunity, also, will be grasped by waiting business men as soon as the sewer situation in the business district is satisfactorily adjusted.

DOOR IS OPEN

LOVE OF LIBERTY IS BASIS OF THIS PLAN TO AID INSANITY PATIENTS

Did you ever hear of the house of Buenos Aires, that sunny South American capital, and is among the most luxurious palaces of the Argentine. There are no walls about this house, nor doors shut within it. The rooms are spacious and the garden in which it is set is a pleasant spot.

Now who do you suppose lives in this house? It is the insane persons of Buenos Aires. They have been gathered there by Dr. Cabrea, a famous pathologist. There are no clanking chains nor padded cells for his charges. Force has been used scarcely ever in the dozen years of its existence. What is the secret? It is love of liberty. Dr. Cabrea says that a man, however his reason may have been shattered, never loses that primeval desire to be free that typifies all mankind. So he has made of his asylum a veritable palace, and the inmates hardly realize that they are prisoners. Hundreds have recovered. Of scores it has been found that at the basis of their insanity was the repression, the stern force of circumstances, that had denied that mind its liberty. So reason cracked. Now slowly, and as mercifully as possible, it is being repaired.

Surely North American institutions for the insane or feebleminded can find something to study in Dr. Cabrea's expeiment. A success of a dozen years ought to be convincing. Perhaps some day in this country mercy, based on science, and not blind force, will govern our treatment of the helpless prisoners of society.

BRANCH LIBRARY

NUMBER OF NEW BOOKS TO BE RELEASED; STORY HOUR ON FRIDAY THIS WEEK

Many interesting volumes have been added to the shelves at the Glendale branch library, corner of Brand boulevard and Los Feliz road. Among them, states Charles H. Cushing, in charge, are to be found:

"The Education of Henry Adams," one of the best works of auto biography of recent times. The title does not give an adequate idea of its scope. By his education he does not mean schooling but rather life experiences. In fact he is very frank in confessing that very little education of real value came to him through school and college, but rather from new types, new environment and new experience which he encountered.

Acting as secretary to his father, Charles Francis Adams, when the latter was minister to England during the civil war, he gives a very good insight into the attitude of England toward that great struggle.

"God, the Invisible King," by H. G. Wells, describes how the real spirit of religion is finding its way into the heart of man and taking the place of empty creeds and superstition of the past.

"Salambo," an historical novel of ancient Carthage is considered the masterpiece of the great French author Flaubert. The library has the translation by J. S. Chartres.

Story Hour on Friday

The story hour this week will be on Friday at 2 p. m. when Miss Brown will tell special Christmas stories. At that time also the following new children's books will be released for circulation:

Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" told to the children by H. E. Marshall.

"True Bird Stories from My Note Books" by Olive Thorne Miller. These stories are from her own observation of the little birds in her wonderful bird room.

Three "Hollow Tree Stories," "Mr. Rabbit's Wedding," "Mr. Turtle's Flying Adventure," and "How Mr. Rabbit Lost His Tail," "Miss Minerva's Baby," a sequel to "Billy and the Major," the Burgess "Animal Book" for Children.

"Boy Scouts on Lost Trail," by Burgess.

"Tin Woodman of Oz," by Baum.

A new edition of "Swiss Family Robinson," beautifully illustrated.

"The Cozy Lion," a delightful little fairy story by Mrs. Burnett.

"The Boy With United States Inventors," by Robert Wheeler.

"The Boy's Book of Border Battles," by Sabin.

"Winona's Way," by Widdemer.

Adult Books Released Friday

On Friday the following adult books will also be released for circulation:

"The Captives," by Walpole.

"The Poor Wise Man," by Rinehart.

"The Reign of Patti," a delightful biography of the great singer, by Klein.

"The Best Plays of 1919-1920," and the "Year Book of the Drama in America."

PINE JOINS WITH OAKES.

WASHINGTON, N. C.—A wooden wedding—thoroughly so—was held, the aptronymic scouts will tell the world, when Miss Ada Oaks became the bride of Walter Pine. Everybody that took part in the ceremony had a name like a tree. The groom, Walter Pine; the bride, Ada Oakes; best man, Robert L. Birch; bridesmaid, Anna Laurel; the preacher, Rev. Oscar T. Wood. To make the woodenness complete the couple went to Hickory and spent a week with the groom's aunt, Mrs. E.W. Shingle.

A tumbling barrel that has been invented to test paving blocks is said to subject them to as much wear as twenty-five years of actual use.

PASTOR RETURNS

DR. H. C. FUNK OF LUTHERAN CHURCH IS BACK FROM TRIP TO NORTH

Dr. H. C. Funk, pastor of the Lutheran church, has just returned from a ten days' trip to Santa Barbara, San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda, Sacramento, Fresno and Sanger, places he visited as superintendent of missions of the Lutheran Synod of California.

Dr. Funk accepted the pastorate of the Glendale church some time ago, and has been finishing up his work as superintendent of missions, in order to take up his work as regular pastor of the Glendale church the first of the new year.

His family has moved to Glendale and are now occupying the parsonage on Harvard street near Maryland.

SPOILED FOOD IS DESTROYED

NEW YORK. — Thousands of pounds of decomposed, moldy and poisoned foods have been condemned in New York restaurants, groceries and butcher shops within ten months, Ole Salthe, acting director of the bureau of food and drugs of the health department, declared today in a report which pointed out "an unusual condition of insanitation."

Typical instances of insanitation cited by Mr. Salthe are: One thousand pounds of dirty and wormy candies taken from a confectionery store; chopped meat containing sulphur dioxide to conceal taint, taken from a butcher shop; in other butcher shops 250 pounds of unstamped tubercular beef, 300 pounds of spoiled pork; more than 7000 pounds of decayed fish.

GIVEN SHOWER

ARTHUR FROST, SOON TO WED, IS GUEST OF HONOR AT WAYNE SMITH HOME

Wayne Smith entertained a number of his sorority friends at a dinner and shower last evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith, 302 North Maryland avenue, in honor of Arthur Fost of Los Angeles, who is to be married tomorrow.

While the last course of dinner was being served Wayne Smith brought in a number of useful gifts and presented them in a dishpan to the guest of honor. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing cards.

The dining table was decorated in blue and gold, the Sigma Ki and also the California colors.

Those present were: Messrs. Arthur Fost, Rathwell, Ingomar, Robinson, Burrell, Lynn Keyes, Dick Malone, Harold Weber, and Bob Lee of Los Angeles; Walter Beach, Kenneth Perrin, Jamie Shea, Mansford Barnes, George Gibons and Wayne Smith of Glendale.

NATURAL THERMOMETER

It was a wonderful sapphire, so it is said, that led the celebrated Doctor Sorby to the discovery of the nature of the liquid sometimes found inclosed in the cavities of crystals.

The gem in question contained a tube-shaped cavity, a quarter of an inch long and an eighteenth of an inch in diameter, which was so regular in its bore that it served, by means of the liquid partially filling it, for a thermometer. The contained liquid half-filled the bore at 50 degrees F. and completely filled it at 80 degrees. A study of the rate of expansion of the liquid led to the conclusion that it must be carbonic acid.

THEATRE ORGAN

EXPENSIVE INSTRUMENT NOW BEING INSTALLED IN GLENDALE THEATRE

organist to play it as it should be played," said Manager Howe, in an interview yesterday.

"We have been happily successful in this respect, for we have secured the services of Mme. Maud Moore Clement, one of the few really great 'picture organists' in the United States. To play for motion pictures requires not only technical skill in the handling of the organ, but also a complete understanding of picture-playing, as well as certain subtle qualities of personality without which much of the charm of the co-ordination of the mood of the music and the atmosphere of the pictured scene is lost.

Comes Here From Riverside

"Mme. Clement comes to us direct from a two years' engagement at the Loring theatre at Riverside, Calif. Prior to that time she played for two years at the Ascher Brothers' great Metropolitan theater in Chicago, one of the largest picture theatres in that city. She has also held the position of first organist in several of the largest theatres in both Boston and Philadelphia.

"It may not be out of place to state that as organist of Glendale Theatre Mme. Clement will be, without doubt, the highest salaried woman theatre organist in this country. She comes to us with a wealth of experience added to a technical knowledge of orchestral work possessed by few. Mme. Clement is a woman of fine disposition and most lovable character. She has innumerable friends both in the profession and outside of it, and leaves Riverside with the best wishes of scores of friends and admirers who will miss her brilliant work and genial personality.

"Following the dedication of our organ, we shall inaugurate a series of Sunday afternoon recitals. These will be arranged for an hour which will not conflict with the work of the churches. The programs at these Sunday afternoon affairs will consist of sacred music, classical and semi-classical selections, and popular numbers, and we hope to make these recitals a feature of which all Glendale people will be proud."

INCOME TAXES

COLLECTIONS ARE SOON TO START ALTHOUGH OFFICE HANDLES BACK WORK

Plans are already under way for the collection of income taxes for 1920, although the force in Internal Revenue Collector Carter's office has not yet completed counting up the receipts for the last quarter.

The Evening News is informed that there is no change in the law and those who desire may make payment all at one time or quarterly payments will be allowed as in the past.

It is stated that the period for filing returns is from January 1 to March 15, 1921, and the blanks will be ready for distribution on the first-named date. Persons whose individual net income for 1920 was $5,000 and less will be furnished with what is known as Form No. 1040. Those whose individual income is in excess of that amount will get Form No. 1940. Forms will be sent to all persons who made returns during the year that is just closing.

RETURN TO ANCIENT INDUSTRY

A Central News correspondent reports that the whaling season off the Shetland Isles has been most successful. HOLLAND NEXT REPUBLIC

There was more than a little uneasiness among the allied diplomats during the world war over the attitude of Holland. The Netherlands kept its position of neutrality admirably. But it was hard to forget that the queen's consort and the heiress apparent's father was a German prince.

Should the balance of power in Europe, now so loosely swinging, catapult the continent into another bloody war, the Dutch do not intend to be caught napping. A special parliamentary committee has just drawn up some new provisions for the constitution that are illuminating.

Among them are the exclusion from the throne of all those "about whom there is no certainty of their sharing the Dutch people's natural feeling, and who are not acquainted with Holland's internal conditions." That is a blow aimed at the Hohenzollerns.

The committee goes further. It proposes that if the queen and Princess Juliana die without further issue, and no sovereign fulfilling the necessary conditions can be found, then the constitution shall be left open for the choice of another form of government.

It is significant that all the new governments established in the last fifty years, with minor exceptions, have been republics. If the Dutch change, they will assuredly choose that form. The Dutch are probably as little oppressed by the monarchy as any European people. Yet it is encouraging to see that they, too, are feeling that any fetter to liberty, though it be light, is a fetter. They, too, are beginning to realize that "all men are created equal" so far, at least, as political rights are concerned.

STREET OPENING

LEAGUE OPPOSITION OFFERED TO COMMERCIAL PROJECT DURING DISCUSSION

that a number of those who signed the protest failed to sign for their property; instead, they signed from their residence.

Does Not Speak for Policy

City Manager Watson stated that while, in his opinion, the legal time for a formal protest had expired, he was not attempting to speak for the policy that may be now taken by the board of trustees in regard to the work.

Individual members of the league have stated that about 500 or more residents of the territory involved are opposed to the opening of the street as proposed. It is probable that, under the circumstances, some action will be taken by the league to bring this to the attention of the trustees before the pending ordinance is finally passed, if it is passed.

Some Favor Broadway Improvement

During the discussion last night it developed that a number of property owners on lower West Broadway favor the improvement of that portion of the thoroughfare, even to widening it at the entrance to the San Fernando road.

City Manager Watson, in this connection, stated that lower West Broadway cannot be improved until the city is given a quit claim deed to the street. He said that the city has the right to a sixty-foot street there, but the lines were in conflict and until the exact center of the street is determined no improvement can be contemplated. He said a quit claim deed could be secured in six weeks, the city furnishing surveys maps and other desired information

It was decided to investigate this feature and, too, to invite all West Broadway residents to attend the next meeting of the league. City Manager Watson suggested the West Broadway improvement be considered, irrespective of the proposed opening of Commercial street.

Friendly Spirit Is Displayed

At the suggestion of Chairman Barrett, a friendly spirit was displayed during the discussion last night; arguments were kept to the main question; factional arguments were not permitted and the city manager was thanked for his explanation of the proposed improvement as viewed from the side of the majority of the municipal officers. City Manager Watson's views on the proposed opening of Commercial street, as outlined to the league last night, appear in full in other columns of The Evening News tonight.

To answer some of the questions asked during the discussion, C. D. Lusby stated that while he was not a member of the league and owned no property in the section involved his son did and that his son was in favor of the improvement, although he would be forced to pay a comparatively heavy assessment.

Mr. Lusby also stated that he was one of the 100 or more business men of the city favoring the improvement and, to answer a question put, outlined briefly a number of the reasons why the majority of the business men of Glendale want the street opened as planned. A petition for the improvement, signed by over 100 local business men, is on file at the city hall, he stated. He declared the opening of the street would route traffic over Wilson, Salem and California, as well as West Broadway.

Opposed to Opening Street

Frank Booth strongly opposed the project, as did a number of others present. The discussion, in part, turned to contemplated sewerage improvements and the city's water system and those in opposition to the project declared that the city has more important matters to consider than the opening of Commercial street.

The discussion indicated that the majority of those present were strongly opposed to the street opening, but no formal action was taken last night, it being deemed advisable to await further reports from committees investigating the best method to proceed by which the work ordered by a majority of the trustees may be stopped. Thus far, Trustee Stephenson has voted against opening Commercial street; the other members of the board have voted in favor of it. It is possible that the matter will come up for discussion before the trustees at the next meeting.

FACTS IN REGARD TO COMMERCIAL STREET GIVEN BY CITY MANAGER

Fourteen Points Are Brought Out, at Meeting of Property Owners Last Night, by T. W. Watson

Under the auspices of the West Glendale Protective league, a meeting was held in the high school last night for the purpose of discussing the proposed opening of Commercial street, an account of which is given elsewhere in The Evening News tonight.

Upon invitation, T. W. Watson, city manager, addressed the meeting, giving fourteen reasons why, in his opinion, the project should receive serious consideration; and, too, he gave information on the subject not generally known. His statement, in full, follows:

By T. W. WATSON
City Manager of Glendale

I am glad of this opportunity of speaking in the interest of Commercial street. I assume that there are a number here who are not in favor of this project as you now see it and it is to you that I desire most to speak, for I feel that some of you may not be fully informed as to what is planned in connection with this project both directly and indirectly.

As I see it there are a number of definite reasons why Commercial street should be opened, some of which are as follows:

1. The opening of Commercial street is a part of a general plan for developing a major street system for the city of Glendale that will afford easy access to the business center of the city from the several gateways. Commercial street is a very important project in this connection inasmuch as an entrance to the business center directly from the west must be so constructed and planned as to consist in itself of an additional gateway as there is no natural entrance to the city directly from the west. We have a natural entrance from the north through Verdugo canyon, from the east by way of Colorado street, through Eagle Rock, and from the south by way of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road and from the southwest by way of Los Feliz road. Patterson avenue when opened as planned will afford a natural entrance from the northwest and Commercial street will afford an entrance directly from the west.

Should Act Before too Late

2. The cut-off as planned at Central avenue and Broadway will obviate such a traffic condition as now exists at Third and Main streets in Los Angeles by providing that traffic going east and west on Broadway may pass directly across Central avenue and west on Broadway may pass directly across Central avenue at right angles in place of having to make a double right angle turn as at present. A few minutes of observation of the confusion that exists at Third and Main streets in Los Angeles by reason of the jog in Third street at this intersection ought to convince anyone that Glendale should correct such a condition before it is too late.

3. That portion of Commercial street extending northwest from Broadway to San Fernando road will be 120 feet in width and when improved with the proper width of paving and wide parkings that will be set out to ornamental trees and palms and covered with lawn will make a fitting and attractive entrance to the business center of the city direct from San Fernando road, placing that entire section as it were at the front door of the city.

4. Commercial street in addition to providing an entrance to the city by way of Broadway will also provide an attractive entrance by way of Wilson and California avenues.

Would Facilitate Traffic

5. Commercial street will facilitate traffic between the commercial and industrial districts. Whatever large industrial enterprises Glendale may obtain in the future will no doubt be located to the west and the northwest of the city and Commercial street as planned would facilitate traffic between the business center and these industries.

6. Commercial street intersects San Fernando road and the Southern Pacific tracks at a good location for a Southern Pacific freight and passenger depot directly opposite the business center. This location is just about midway between the north and south extremities of the city.

7. It also intersects San Fernando road at a most advantageous location for a crossing under San Fernando road and the Southern Pacific tracks by reason of the fact that there is a natural ravine extending in a southwesterly direction at this location which causes both the boulevard and the railroad tracks to be considerably above grade and a roadway located along this ravine would pass well under the present grade of San Fernando road and the Southern Pacific tracks.

8. The possibility of such a crossing should be a great incentive for the continuation therefrom of a roadway across the Los Angeles river to Griffith park.

Continuation of California

9. This roadway would really be a continuation of California avenue across Commercial street and under the San Fernando road and Southern Pacific tracks to Griffith park and would connect with a new roadway that is now being planned by the engineering department of Los Angeles to carry a large part of the traffic from the San Fernando valley along the west bank of the Los Angeles river to an entrance to the business section of Los Angeles by way of Sunset boulevard, Glendale boulevard and Second street tunnel.

10. A new road is also being planned to extend from this proposed extension of California avenue along the east bank of the Los Angeles river crossing Los Feliz road and connecting with Glendale boulevard at the north end of Ivanhoe bridge. We have had a conference this afternoon with the engineering committee of the Los Angeles Planning commission and have called their attention to the desirability of these two new roadways and feel confident that they will co-operate in the opening and improving of them. This last mentioned street would pass through a large undeveloped area that needs just such an improvement. We have discussed the project with some of the larger owners of property within the district and they have also expressed their willingness to co-operate.

11. The opening of Commercial street as planned and the extension of California avenue as herein set forth and as outlined on the map before you, would open up a large area west of the city limits of Glendale to the east bank of the Los Angeles river for industrial purposes. Such district if developed would be largely tributary to the city of Glendale and would be made accessible from our business center by way of Commercial street and Wilson avenue. It is our opinion that if there is ever a large industrial district tributary to the city of Glendale it will be developed at this location.

Front on Proposed Extension

12. The small plot of ground about 200 feet wide by 300 feet long at the intersection of Commercial street and San Fernando road would front on the proposed extension of California avenue across and under the San Fernando road and Southern Pacific tracks as stated before and would afford a very advantageous location for a railroad passenger and express depot as it would be accessible from streets on all sides and could be reached from Southern Pacific trains by way of the proposed extension of California avenue from the Southern Pacific tracks without the necessity of pedestrians having to cross either the tracks or highway at grade. This is a very material point that should be given due consideration. A depot on the Southern Pacific lines at this location in our opinion is quite desirable and should be planned for at this time.

13. We are told by Ernest P. Goodrich, consulting engineer for New York City, that there are estimated to be 8,500,000 automobiles registered in the United States this year. That at the present rate of increase this number will double inside of four years. There are now 20,000 people in Glendale and vicinity and at the present rate of increase this number will also double within four years. Taking these two facts together we can assume that there will be a tremendous increase in auto traffic on the streets of Glendale during this period. The opening of Commercial street and the other developments outlined in connection therewith will assist in providing for this increased traffic. A glance at the map of Glendale will indicate that the traffic from its street system is all forced to converge at one or two street intersections at the southern point of the city. This is caused by the fact that on the east there are the Erskine hills which prevent traffic going directly south and on the west are the Southern Pacific tracks which seem to form a traffic barrier along the west boundary of the city. With the rapid development of the city and the increase in traffic not only in Glendale, but in Burbank and the San Fernando valley, traffic conditions at the intersections in this small area at the extreme southern portion of the city will become greatly congested and it is proper and right that those who have to do with planning for the future should seek to provide other outlets for a portion of this traffic.

Real Gateway to City

Commercial street and the extension of California avenue under the Southern Pacific tracks together with the two new boulevards suggested would provide a real gateway to the city from the west for traffic from the San Fernando valley and the western part of the city of Los Angeles.

14. In conclusion, Glendale stands today as one of the most rapidly growing cities of the country. This growth is an asset to the property holders of the city. Real estate values have increased in Glendale during the last three years from 25 per cent to 50 per cent and in some instances business property has increased over 300 per cent. This is a direct result of the great growth we have had during this period. This increase in population and material growth still continues. The city is increasing in population at the present time at the rate of 5000 new people a year. If you will consult the real estate dealers of the city you will find that this is a very substantial growth. People are buying homes in Glendale and paying for them at the rate of 100 every month. Again I say this growth is an asset to the owners of real estate in Glendale. We cannot expect, however, to enjoy the benefit of these increased assets without incurring therewith some liability and when we are called upon to pay for improvements such as I have outlined to you this evening, I believe we should consider the money thus paid as an investment just as truly as was the original purchase price of the property upon which these assessments are paid.

LIFE IN THE COUNTRY.

Considerable discussion is heard these days as to the means that may be adopted to keep folks on the farms. The situation has become serious, for many experienced farmers are moving into the cities, either for the purpose of earning what they consider easier money, or to use their savings in giving their children and themselves the advantages of city life. Whatever the cause, the situation remains, and it constitutes a problem that may well engage the attention of national and state authorities. The fear is expressed that the production of food may become reduced to such an extent that the scarcity will not only greatly increase prices, but threaten the welfare of the people.

While the reasoning is purely academic and subject to the views of each individual, it is probably true that the persons who make occasional trips from the rural districts to the larger towns enjoy these visits and the things they see much more than those who see them every day. It is a case were familiarity sometimes breeds contempt. In the matter of better school facilities in the towns, there is in most cases no place for argument, although some progress has been made in a number of states to bring about a centralization of teaching that gives country pupils some of the advantages of the city in a course of study.

There is nothing to justify undue pressure to keep men and women and boys and girls on the farms. Rural life should be so attractive in itself that enough persons will make choice of the country life to insure the crops of grain and quantities of other foodstuffs needed to maintain all the people at a reasonable cost.

Nations are no longer like farmhouses in a county; they are like rooms in a tenement.

BRAZIL'S BIG SNAKE NURSERY.

There are said to be more snakes in Brazil than in any other country of the western hemisphere, an exchange remarks. At Batuntan, near Sao Paulo, there is a great snake garden where scientists are studying the mysteries of snake biology. The original reason for the establishment of the garden, which is a huge nursery for snakes, was to obtain serum enought for those bitten by snakes throughout Brazil. The garden is 600 acres in extent and divided into three departments, two of which are devoted to cobras, crotalids and bothrops, the most poisonous snakes known; while the third department is given to the nonpoisonous snakes.

One-third of the population of Germany will emigrate to North America and South America within the next few years, according to a German authority. The reason given for the emigration is that Germany is no longer large enough to provide a living for her increasing population.

WRITES ANSWER

FRED WILKINSON HAS REPLY TO DR. LUSBY; TAXATION ALSO DISCUSSED

Editor Evening News—The manner in which your paper gives voice to our citizens, concerning various public questions, is surely to be commended, and the article in Tuesday's issue by my good friend Dr. Lusby, causes the spirit within me to demand utterance to some thoughts and facts regarding Commercial street, taxes, bonds, etc.

In regard to Commercial street opening for "which he has been working" so long and which is of "so much importance," we fail to see where the importance comes in. If a better opening for leaving the San Fernando road is desired, the Patterson street extension fills the bill better in every way than does the Commercial street plan. Patterson street leaves the San Fernando road just where that road is making its turn to the south and will invite the traveler, who will then have the choice of the many beautiful north and south streets (Pacific, Columbus, Central, Orange or Brand) to bring him down to the business section, while Commercial gives him no choice but to use Broadway, as at present.

Who will be the gainers by the opening of Commercial street? The answer as given by its supporters is "the whole city." Then let the whole city pay for it. The writer lives two blocks from Broadway and is included in the assessed district. How and where will it benefit him that it does not benefit the whole city?

Meetings are being held to oppose this opening by the people who will have to pay for it. The east side has banded itself together to oppose what they consider an unjust manner of making the assessment to improve Sycamore Canyon road. In like manner the west side is organizing to protect itself against a taxation that does not have one-tenth of the merit that the Sycamore canyon project has, for that is needed to protect the district against the destruction of flood waters.

On Taxes and Taxpaying

Dr. Lusby brings up the subject of taxes and taxpaying. We wonder how many of our people realize the alarming rapidity of the increasing tax rate? From a study of our tax receipts we find that the rate of increase in our taxes the past nine years has been over 142 per cent. Will the increase be as great in the next nine years? From the manner in which bond issues are voted, it seems most likely. Does not the thought make us pause and consider where our taxes will end? In addition to our taxes we have special assessment districts, many of them needed, no doubt, so is it any wonder, Dr. Lusby, that we are fighting against bearing the additional burden of opening up an entirely (to us) unnecessary street, the expense of which even its promotors cannot or have not, estimated?

All credit to Councilman Stephenson for his action in this matter, for it well behooves our city trustees as well as county supervisors to consider well before adding additional burdens to the already overburdened, the common taxpayer.

FRED WILKINSON,
227 North Central.

BONUS MONEY

PACIFIC ELECTRIC EMPLOYEES OF GLENDALE GET CHECKS AS "MERRY CHRISTMAS"

Employes of the Pacific Electric railway in Glendale are receiving their "Merry Christmas" from the company, for the monthly bonus money of $5, figured from April 1 to December 1, amounting to $40, is being paid to the men. Therefore, there is joy among the Glendale employes of the company.

It is stated that it is a requirement of the company that each man who receives a bonus must have been with the organization for at least six months; also, for each demerit a man receives during the eight months' period $1 is deducted from his bonus money.

It is further stated that the money the men do not receive because of demerits does not go back to the treasury of the company, but is used for the purpose of relieving sickness and distress among the employes and their families.

TAKING CARE INDOOR PLANTS

To make ferns grow rapidly indoors and look fresh and green, chop a few oysters fine and mix with the soil and then water well. This may be done every fortnight. Wash the leaves of your rubber plant with a cloth wet with olive oil. This nourishes the plant and keeps the leaves dark green and velvety. Add a few drops of ammonia to a quart of lukewarm water when you water house plants. The chemical acts as a tonic and fertilizer and makes the foliage fresher. And be careful, when real winter weather comes, not to water your plants with water too cold. Water running from a faucet in January is far too cold for tender plants. Add enough hot water to make the drink you give your plants lukewarm—as rainwater always is in summer time.

WITNESSES FIRE

EVENING NEWS EMPLOYEE IS AT VENICE WHEN PIER TOTALLY DESTROYED

O. J. Wolfram, an employe of the job department of The Evening News, who resides in Venice, witnessed the destruction by fire of the pier. He saw the start of the fire in the dance hall, which had been decorated with greenery for the Christmas holidays.

"The big building burned like so much paper," said Mr. Wolfram today. "The flames spread quickly to surrounding structures and soon the pier was a mass of flying embers. The fire departments of Venice, Ocean Park, Santa Monica and Los Angeles were powerless to stop the fire. At one time the St. Mark's hotel was reported burning. However, the flames were prevented from spreading to the city proper.

Many Thousands on Beach

"One of the big sights of the fire was the many thousands of people gathered on the sands to watch the noted pier destroyed. The beach between Venice and Santa Monica was a solid mass of people, the flames lighting up their faces, presenting a most unusual spectacle."

It is estimated that the property loss to the Abbott Kinney company, owner of the pier, is about $750,000. The pier itself, exclusive of the buildings and concessions, represents a loss of about $350,000. It is said that the insurance on everything is about $50,000.

Thornton Kinney, president of the company, stated today the pier would be rebuilt immediately.

REGAINS HOSE

PROPERTY STOLEN ON SUNDAY NIGHT FROM J. W. DUNCAN HOME IS RECOVERED

The fifty-foot length of garden hose stolen from J. W. Duncan, 475 West California avenue, Sunday night, was recovered by him late yesterday upon identifying it at the police station. Mr. Duncan said the hose, which he values at $10, was taken from the garage on a lot at 513 West California avenue on which he is building a house.

The same night and in the same neighborhood several rolls of roofing paper were stolen valued at $3.50 a roll, which police believe were taken by the same thief or thieves. The garden hose was found abandoned by police patrolmen Monday morning.

Selects Prison When Close to Poorhouse

PORTLAND, Ore.—Choosing prison in preference to the poorhouse, James Coplen, a six-time convict, forged a check at Pendleton, came to Portland and surrendered to Sheriff Hurlburt with the plea that he be sent as soon as possible to the Salem penitentiary.

Coplen's independence was indicated when it became known that his brother, J. D. Coplen, is owner of the Inspiration mine at Globe, Ariz., with residence headquarters in Los Angeles. A nephew, J. B. Coplen, is associated with the brother. Although both relatives are reputed to be wealthy, Coplen has refused to accept bounty of any sort from them, preferring to fight his own battles. That he has failed has left no blight upon the old man, who is cheery and of pleasing personality, despite several terms spent in various prisons.

"I'm old and can't work. I've been away so long that a prison is the only home I know. I'd rather end my days there than in the poorhouse. Fix it up so they send me up as soon as possible," he said.

Coplen, a broken down old man, 66 years of age, is a tragic example of the truth of the adage that crime does not pay. He has spent thirty years of the sixty-three years of his life behind prison walls. He has become so used to the routine of penitentiary life that he does not feel normal when he at liberty. He has no trade. Long terms at confinement have broken his health to such an extent that he cannot earn a living by common labor.

Coplen admits that he has served time in Colorado, Boise, Walla Walla and San Quentin. He has tried to work recently, but found he was unable to hold a job. So he cashed a check for $30 at Pendleton and came to Portland.

"The detectives are after me and I know they would get me," he told the Sheriff. "I want to surrender and spend the rest of my life in the Oregon penitentiary."

DIRTY CARDS AS MONEY

Business and advertising cards, now torn and dirty from much handling, have been circulating as money in Papeete, Tahiti, travelers have been surprised to find, since the middle of October, 1919, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. At that time, and in some manner not explained, all the smaller silver coins dropped out of circulation as though dumped into the water that girds this small island of the Southern Pacific. Determined to establish a medium of exchange, at last, one of the business firms offered as currency its own business cards, bearing above the proprietor's signature the words: "Good for 50 centimes," 1 franc, or 2 francs, as desired.—Indianapolis News.

ATTACKS GIRL

MISS ELLEN MARZE BATTLES WITH ASSAILANT, FINALLY MAKING HER ESCAPE

Miss Ellen Marze, employed at the Willett cigar stand on East Broadway near Brand boulevard, was attacked at about 8 o'clock Monday night at the corner of Ivy street and Columbus avenue.

The girl managed to tear herself away from her assailant and ran to her home, 131 South Pacific avenue, about a block from the scene of the assault. She was uninjured, although badly frightened.

Miss Marze did not notify the police until noon yesterday. She was able to furnish a complete description of the man who attacked her since she recognized him as a customer who had visited the cigar stand earlier in the evening.

Also Remembers Stranger

Her employer, Mr. Willett, also remembered the stranger, whom, he said, he had never seen until Sunday.

The man was described as being five feet ten inches tall and about 26 years old. He had a large gold tooth in the front of the lower jaw and was wearing a gray overcoat with a gray fur collar which he wore turned up about his face.

The attack on Miss Marze was the second occurring in Glendale Sunday night, the first being reported by Miss Viola McCourbey, 1831 Gardena, as told in The Evening News last night.

CITY CONTRACT

SUPERVISOR DODGE WRITES TO THE EVENING NEWS ABOUT DR. ECKLES' ARREST

A copy of The Evening News of December 8, in which was an account of the arrest of Dr. J. B. Eckles, city health officer, by authorities of the city of Los Angeles, because Dr. Eckles caused a man with the smallpox to be taken to the county hospital for care, there being no place for him in Glendale, was brought to the attention of Jonathan S. Dodge, supervisor from the fifth district.

Supervisor Dodge writes to A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Evening News, in regard to the article and, among other things, says:

"While we maintain a hospital for the entire county, I might say that we do not accept small-pox cases. We are planning to build a contagious pavilion during the coming year, but I think we will still continue to handle all cases of contagion excepting small-pox.

"The city of Los Angeles has a very fine small-pox segregation house that cost them perhaps $150,000 and the thing to do is for the county and all of the cities of the county to enter into some kind of a contract by which the city of Los Angeles should handle all small-pox cases from every section."

County Health Officer Comes

Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, county health officer, visited Glendale for a conference with T. W. Watson, city manager, following the publication of the story in The Evening News. It is stated that Dr. Pomeroy declared that too much "red tape" should not bind the officers when prompt action is necessary.

The health officer and the city manager had a thorough discussion of the case as it will bear on future cases and the result was the matter was referred to Supervisor Dodge. It is presumed he will answer as he has to The Evening News and, therefore, it is probable the city will make some arrangements with the city of Los Angeles to care for any cases that may be found in the future.

Owing to the fact that City Attorney W. E. Evans has a crowded calendar, the case against Dr. Eckles in Justice H. M. Miller's court has not yet been set for trial.

Large Amount Is Done by Southern Pacific

NEW YORK.—The Southern Pacific moved more than 26,000,000 tons of freight in the nine months ended September 30, exceeding the record of any previous similar period by nearly 752,000 tons. Tonnage orignated on its own lines was 60 per cent of the total.

Passengers carried during the same period amounted to over 38,000,000, an increase of almost 212,000 over the same period in 1919, and 17,452,000 more than during the similar months of 1915, when the exposition was being held.

Average freight car movement per day for September, was 38.6 miles, compared with the thirty miles per day set by the association of railway executives, as the goal which all roads should strive to attain. Loadings, however, averaged only 26.3 tons per car, compared with thirty tons set by railway executives, although this was an increase of 1.5 tons over September, 1919.

Southern Pacific relaid 148 miles of track with new ninety pound rails and balasted 237 miles during the year to September 30. Equipment ordered by the company to be delivered by the end of the year included thirty heavy locomotives, twenty steel baggage cars, sixteen steel electric passenger cars and 250 automobile cars. It is also building 2300 freight cars in its own shops.

The Mexican sugar crop of 1921 is estimated at 100,000 tons. Forty thousand tons of this will be exported.
